

U2's Bono and the Edge make a return to Dublin with Dave Letterman, reflecting on their journey as musicians and friends. The docu-special features never-before-seen footage and interviews detailing their songwriting process and the inspiration behind their greatest hits.

During lockdown in 2020, Bono and Edge spent time revisiting many of their iconic songs and re-recorded them for today's audience. When they emerged, Bono invited Dave to visit the pair in Dublin and attend a special show at the old Ambassador Cinema building at the top of O'Connell Street. Directed by Academy Award®-winning filmmaker Morgan Neville, this is a concert movie, a travel adventure, and the story of one of the most remarkable friendships in the history of rock and roll.

"Bono & The Edge: A Sort of Homecoming, with Dave Letterman" will stream March 17, 2023, exclusively on Disney+ on St. Patrick's Day, coinciding with U2's highly anticipated album "Songs Of Surrender" — a collection of 40 seminal U2 songs from across the band's catalog, re-recorded and reimagined.
