

Set before the events of Disney and Pixar’s “Soul,” 22 defies the rules of The Great Before and refuses to go to Earth, enlisting a gang of five other new souls in her attempt at rebellion. However, as her cohorts’ activities lead to unexpected results, 22’s subversive plot may actually lead to a surprising revelation about the meaning of life.

Directed by Kevin Nolting and produced by Lourdes Alba, “22 vs. Earth” streams on Disney+ beginning April 30, 2021.
