

Alyson Stoner "Isabella"

Multi-hyphenate artist and podcast host Alyson Stoner reprises her role as Isabella in Disney+'s original animated adventure movie "Phineas and Ferb The Movie: Candace Against the Universe." The movie follows stepbrothers Phineas and Ferb as they set out across the galaxy to rescue older sister Candace, who has been abducted by aliens and finds utopia in a far-off planet, free of pesky little brothers.

Stoner's focus lies in creating content that provokes thought and inspires viewers. Her short form series ALchemy centers on mental health and airs regularly on her YouTube channel, along with her podcast Simplicity, which aims to simplify the complexities of life through interviews with experts across fields. She also remains active in the dance world, after beginning her career at just six years old as a dynamic dancer in music videos for various Billboard chart toppers, including Missy Elliott's "Work It." Stoner recently reunited with Elliott at the 2019 MTV Video Music Award's during her Video Vanguard Recipient performance.

As an artist, Stoner uses her music to share stories with the world. Her single "When It's Right" was released in March 2018 and shares her story of falling in love with a woman for the first time. In January 2019, she released her single "Stripped Bare" as a declaration of freedom symbolized by shaving her head during the music video.

Stoner has starred in numerous Disney Channel projects including "Camp Rock" and "Suite Life of Zack & Cody," along with film franchises "Cheaper by the Dozen" and "Step Up." She remains active in the voiceover world and can be heard in "The Incredibles 2," "Pete the Cat," "Lego Batman," "Young Justice," "The Loud House" and Disney's "Milo Murphy's Law."