

BIOGRAPHY

Amiri Nash (he/him)
Hero, Episode "Amiri"

Amiri, 20, is a writer, activist, pianist, scholar, and poet who has a unique perspective on life. Amiri's outlook is fueled by his passion for creative social justice. The 2021 Washington DC Youth Poet Laureate, he writes about the identities that he occupies, Black & Queer. He was also named as one of GLAAD's 2021 20 Under 20 youth who are changing the world. As Founder and Co-editor of Brown University's The Black Star Journal, Amiri wants to leave a legacy of the Black experience for those who come after him.