

LIMITLESS

WITH CHRIS HEMSWORTH

Ari Handel

Executive Producer, Protozoa

Ari Handel holds a doctorate in neuroscience and has published four papers on the neural control of saccadic eye movements. He left academia to become president of Protozoa Pictures. There, Handel has been a writer on the films "The Fountain" and "Noah"; a producer on "mother!," "Jackie" and "The Whale"; an executive producer on "Some Kind of Heaven," "White Boy Rick," "Noah," "Black Swan," "Catch the Fair One" and "The Territory"; and a co-producer on "The Wrestler" and "The Good Nurse." He is an executive producer on the National Geographic science series "One Strange Rock," "Welcome to Earth" and "Limitless with Chris Hemsworth." Handel has proudly served on the board of directors for the storytelling organization The Moth for nearly two decades.
