

Ariel Martin
"Wynter"

Ariel Martin plays werewolf "Wynter," pack leader Willa's best friend and a powerful member of the Seabrook High football team, in "ZOMBIES 3," the third installment in Disney's hugely successful franchise.

Originally from Pembroke Pines, Florida, Martin, aka "Baby Ariel," has already become an accomplished actress, singer, entrepreneur and author at just 21 years old. She first became known as an influencer on the Musical.ly app. and was the most followed user on that platform, and has since amassed a social following of more than 50 million people. In 2017, she landed a spot on Forbes' list of "Top Entertainment Influencers" and was twice honored as one of Time magazine's "Most Influential People on the Internet." Her television credits include Disney Channel's "Bizaardvark," "In the Nook," "Fam Jam" and the Zombies franchise.

As a recording artist, Martin has released 7 singles and an EP to date. Her music toppled nearly 100 million video views and continues to grow.

In 2018, she released her debut book, "Dreaming Out Loud."

Martin was awarded "Choice Muser" at the Teen Choice Awards for two consecutive years and she has also garnered an "Innovator Honor" from the Wall Street Journal.

Martin currently lives with her boyfriend, Milo and splits her time between Los Angeles and Miami.
