

BIOGRAPHY

Bert Salke

Executive Producer

Bert Salke has an incredibly unique and strong background in both network and cable/streaming television. He's been a creator, showrunner, executive producer, and studio president. Bert recently founded Co-Lab21 and is currently in a multi-year overall producing deal with Disney Television Studios. Previously, he served as the President of Touchstone TV Studios (formerly Fox21) for the past decade where he oversaw development and production at the studio. Among the shows the studio produced were the Emmy award-winning "Homeland" and "The Americans" (with FX productions), "Genius," "Queen of the South," "The Chi," "Sons of Anarchy," and "Mayans M.C." (also with FX prod). In addition, Fox21/Touchstone was the home for the majority of the shows from Ryan Murphy Television (American Crime Story, POSE, etc.) . Prior to that, Bert was a successful show-runner/creator /independent producer with Chris Brancato working as Brancato/Salke Prod. Bert began his career as an executive, working at both Fox Broadcasting and Lorimar.
