

Bill Borden

Executive Producer

Bill Borden is the Emmy Award-winning executive producer of Disney Channel's smash hit movies "High School Musical," "High School Musical 2" and "High School Musical 3," and is currently serving as executive producer for "High School Musical: The Musical: The Series," a reinvented take on the movies, for Disney+.

He counts among his myriad of feature film producing credits Arnold Schwarzenegger's "End of Days," Spike Lee's "Get on the Bus" and Robert Rodriguez's "Desperado." Additional producing credits include "The Cure," "A Midnight Clear," "The Man in the Moon," "La Bamba," "White Nights," "Home of Our Own," "Against All Odds," "Lock and Roll Forever," Disney's "Meet the Robinsons," Columbia's "Excess Baggage," "The Medallion" with Jackie Chan, "Kung Fu Hustle" and "The Mermaid" with Stephen Chow, "Mission Impossible 3" and "In the Mix" with R&B artist Usher.

He also served as the executive producer on a series of foreign remakes of "High School Musical" in China, Argentina and Mexico.

In addition to the "High School Musical" franchise, Borden has executive produced the Disney Channel Original Movies "Tiger Cruise," "Ring of Endless Light" and "Ready to Run."

He started his career working for Mel Brooks on "History of the World" and for Taylor Hackford on "An Officer and a Gentleman."

Born in Santa Monica and raised in Encino, Borden currently lives in Santa Monica with his wife and three sons.