Carmen Sanchez
"Jade"

Carmen Sanchez stars as school rebel Jade in "Electric Bloom."

Born in Mexico in 2007 and raised by a Cuban family, Carmen B. Sanchez is a versatile performer with a passion for music, dance, and acting. A true triple threat, she has captivated audiences with her dynamic talent and relentless dedication to her craft at such a young age.

With a mother who is a renowned choreographer and a father who is a skilled musician and musical director, Sanchez was surrounded by the arts from an early age, absorbing the rhythm of dance and the power of music that would shape her future. At just 8-years-old, she made her first major on-camera appearance on La Voz Kids in 2016, where she joined Team Yankee. Her incredible talent and stage presence quickly caught the attention of audiences and industry professionals alike. This appearance led to a major opportunity: a two-year contract with the first national Broadway tour of "On Your Feet," the musical celebrating the lives of Gloria and Emilio Estefan. Sanchez further expanded her career by participating in "America's Most Musical Family" alongside her father. This led to a music and acting contract, where she appeared on "Side Hustle" as guest star and contributed to a Christmas album.

Today, Sanchez is a known performer in Southwest Florida, where she regularly captivates audiences as a lead singer in her band, Carmen and Havana Band. With a blend of musical styles influenced by her Cuban roots and contemporary flair, she has become a beloved figure in the local music scene.

Beyond her performances, Sanchez is also writing and recording her own original music, further cementing her place as a multi-talented artist.

"Electric Bloom" is set to premiere on Disney Channel and Disney+ summer 2025.
