

Catherine Zeta Jones
"Billie"

Catherine Zeta-Jones is a multi-award-winning actress whose talents range from film to theater. She garnered an Academy Award for her portrayal of the scandalous Velma Kelly, in the screen adaptation of "Chicago." Catherine was also nominated for a Golden Globe and took home the Critics' Choice Award, a Screen Actors Guild Award and the BAFTA Award for Best Supporting Actress for her performance. She won the Tony Award for Lead Actress in a Musical for her critically acclaimed Broadway debut as Desirée Armfeldt in Stephen Sondheim's "A Little Night Music."

Her other starring roles include, Steven Soderbergh's "Ocean's 12," "Side Effects," and "Traffic," for which she earned a Golden Globe nomination for her portrayal of the wife of a drug-runner. She also starred in Steven Spielberg's "The Terminal," opposite Tom Hanks and the Coen Brothers' dark comedy "Intolerable Cruelty," opposite George Clooney. Recently she starred in the telefilm "Cocaine Godmother," based on the true-life story of the notorious drug lord, Griselda Blanco.

She first gained international recognition in the action-adventure film "The Mask of Zorro," opposite Antonio Banderas and Anthony Hopkins. She then captivated audiences in "Entrapment," opposite screen legend Sean Connery.

Zeta-Jones is repped by UTA and Ziffren Brittenham LLP.