

Cedric "The Entertainer" "Uncle Bobby"

Actor and comedian Cedric "The Entertainer" reprises his role as Uncle Bobby in Disney+'s "The Proud Family: Louder and Prouder," the long-anticipated revival of the groundbreaking animated series "The Proud Family."

Currently, Cedric is starring in and executive producing the hit comedy "The Neighborhood" and is hosting and executive producing "Greatest #AtHome Videos," executive produces the dramedy "Johnson" for Bounce TV, and recently executive produced and hosted the 73rd Annual Primetime Emmy Awards. He also appears co-starring in "The Last O.G.," opposite Tracy Morgan and Tiffany Haddish. His additional television credits include "The Soul Man," which he co-created and executive-produced; "The Steve Harvey Show," which he received four NAACP Image Awards for Outstanding Supporting Actor in a Comedy; and the sketch comedy series "Cedric the Entertainer Presents," which he starred in, executive-produced and garnered the AFTRA Award of Excellence. He also served as the season 12 host of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?"

Cedric's versatile film work spans genres from the comedic, highlighted by his memorable performances in the hit "Barbershop" franchise, "Johnson Family Vacation" and "The Original Kings of Comedy;" to the dramatic with the Academy Award-nominated drama "First Reformed." His signature baritone voice has been heard in animated hits such as the "Madagascar" film series, the "Planes" franchise, "Ice Age 2," and "Dr. Dolittle 2."

He was also recently seen in the feature films "Son of the South" and "The Opening Act," and will soon start production on the "Johnson Family Vacation" sequel, for which he will star in and produce.

Never resting on his laurels and with stand-up comedy being his first love, Cedric continues to hone and perfect his craft by performing live shows across the country. He recently wrapped a highly successful four year run on "The Comedy Get Down Tour."

In July 2018, the actor and comedian was honored with a Star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. A few months later, his hometown of St. Louis, Missouri named a street in his honor, Cedric The Entertainer Way, in recognition of his far-reaching career achievements and dedicated philanthropy through his Cedric the Entertainer Charitable Foundation.

He currently resides in Los Angeles.
