

BIOGRAPHY

Chosen Jacobs

"EI"

Chosen Jacobs is best known for his role as 'Mike Hanlon' in the horror films "IT" and "IT: Chapter 2." Chosen will next be seen in the highly anticipated Disney musical feature "Sneakerella" opposite Lexi Underwood and just wrapped Production on the Netflix feature "Purple Hearts," opposite Sofia Carson. Most recently, he starred in the lead role in the Quibi/Roku film/series hybrids "When the Streetlights Go On." Additional onscreen credits include Hulu's "Castle Rock," "American Woman," "Cops and Robbers," and recurring roles on "God Friended Me" and "Hawaii Five-0."

Raised in Atlanta, Georgia, Chosen began his performing career with the Georgia Boys Choir at 6 years old as an opera singer. At 10 years old, Chosen blended his singing talent with acting and joined Atlanta's theatrical community as a performer in "The King and I," "Into the Woods" and "Hairspray."

Today, Chosen loves to spend his time in the studio writing and producing music, such as "Losers," which was placed on the "IT: Chapter One" playlist on Spotify. "Missing You" was released in 2019 and was inspired by "It: Chapter 2." In May 2020, he released his first EP titled "..." which featured his single "Phone Tag." As a young philanthropist, Chosen enjoys paying it forward and giving back to the less fortunate. He recently collaborated with the Boys and Girls club of Metro Atlanta to donate a portion of the proceeds from his song, "Me n Mine," to support their new community center.

When he is not acting or singing, you can find him watching anime television shows, studying French and Mandarin, on the basketball court, or streaming the latest Marvel movie.
