

Dara Reneé
"Kourtney"

Dara Reneé is a next generation rising talent, best known for her fan-favorite role of Kourtney on "High School Musical: The Musical: The Series" for Disney+.

Most recently, Dara showcased her talents as the Host on the hit baking competition series "Disney's Magic Bake Off."

Dara's breakout role came when she starred as "Savannah" in the Disney Channel Original Movie "Freaky Friday." Since then, she has appeared on the Lifetime film "My Stepfather's Secret" as well as guest starring in "Grey's Anatomy" and her recurring role as Stunts on the ABC series "black-ish."

While not on set, she is busy writing and producing new music as an independent artist. Dara is beyond excited for one of her original songs to be featured in season three of "High school Musical: The Musical: The Series."

The multi-hyphenate star began her career at the early age of two, where she appeared in numerous commercials and print campaigns. Renee' eventually moved from Los Angeles to Baltimore, Maryland where she and her mom opened "Encouraging Youth to Dream Performing Arts Studio," a non-profit program created to motivate and empower young people through the Performing Arts. There, Reneé trained and performed memorable roles in countless productions including "Annie," "West Side Story," "The Wiz," and "Grease," before returning to Los Angeles, where she currently resides.
