"Perry the Platypus/Agent P"

Voiceover wizard Dee Bradley Baker reprises his role as Perry the Platypus/Agent P in Disney+'s original animated adventure movie "Phineas and Ferb The Movie: Candace Against the Universe." The movie follows stepbrothers Phineas and Ferb as they set out across the galaxy to rescue older sister Candace, who has been abducted by aliens and finds utopia in a far-off planet, free of pesky little brothers.

Over the past three decades Baker has built an extraordinary voiceover career with his amazing acting range and uncanny ability to create realistic creature sounds. He has worked extensively in television animation on shows including "SpongeBob SquarePants," "Family Guy," "Steven Universe," "Avatar: The Last Airbender," "Milo Murphy's Law," and "Star Wars Rebels." In 2017, he received an Emmy® Award nomination in the Outstanding Character Voice-Over category for his performance as Klaus on "American Dad!" Currently, Baker stars as the voice of Animal, the wild and frenzied drummer, in Disney Junior's reimagined "Muppet Babies" television series.

Baker's creature vocalizations are featured in many top video games, including "Gears of War," "Halo," "Portal 2," "Left 4 Dead 2" and "Star Wars Battlefront II." His feature film work includes "Space Jam," "Happy Feet," "G-Force" and "Astro Boy."

Originally from Greeley, Colorado, Baker resides in Los Angeles, California. In his free time, he enjoys nature photography and spending time with his family.
