

BIOGRAPHY

Devon Sawa

"Mr. Cole"

Devon Sawa has endeared himself to audiences for years, most recently starring in Screen Gems' "Heart Eyes" (dir. Josh Ruben). Devon was a fan favorite on the Syfy series "Chucky" alongside Jennifer Tilly, and Jean Smart hand-picked Devon to play her hunky love interest on "Hacks" for HBO. Prior to that, Devon starred opposite Sylvester Stallone and Dave Bautista in "Escape Plan: The Extractors," opposite John Travolta in "The Fanatic," and opposite Guy Pearce in "Disturbing The Peace." Devon appeared in IFC's critically acclaimed "Hunter Hunter," and he will next be seen in "Thieves Highway" (dir. Jesse V. Johnson).

Born in Vancouver, Canada, Sawa is an industry veteran who started as a child actor in "Casper," "Now and Then," and "Little Giants." He soon became a household name after starring in the iconic horror franchise "Final Destination" as well as cult favorites "Idle Hands" and "SLC Punk." He reprised his iconic "SLC Punk" role in the sequel "Punk's Dead," much to the delight of the original film's fans.

#