

Dara Renee'
"Kourtney"

Dara Renee' plays "Kourtney" on "High School Musical: The Musical: The Series," a reinvented take on the two-time Emmy® Award-winning "High School Musical" franchise, for Disney+.

Most recently, Renee' starred as Savannah in the Disney Channel Original Movie "Freaky Friday." She's also been featured in a recurring role on the hit ABC series "black-ish," and a guest starring role on ABC's "The Kids Are Alright."

This versatile performer from Los Angeles began her career at the early age of two where she appeared in numerous commercials and various print ads. Renee' eventually moved to Baltimore, Maryland for a few years where she and her mom opened the Performing Arts Studio, "Encouraging Youth to Dream." There, she trained and performed memorable roles in countless productions including "Annie," "West Side Story," "The Wiz," and "Grease," before returning to Los Angeles, where she currently resides.
