

Selenis Leyva
"Gabi"

Actress/Activist Selenis Leyva, best known for her role as Gloria Mendoza in "Orange is the New Black," plays Gabi, Elena and Bobby's mom in "Diary of a Future President."

Leyva is one of the breakout stars of the original, ground breaking, hit series, "Orange Is The New Black." In 2017 the series won their third consecutive Screen Actors Guild Award for "Best Ensemble Cast in a Comedy Series." She also had a guest-starring arc and recurring role in "Dietland" as Belle as well as appearing in "Maniac," starring opposite Emma Stone and Jonah Hill. Leyva also guest starred opposite the legendary Candice Bergen in "Murphy Brown."

In 2018, Leyva was included in Time magazine's TV MVP list. The 2017 Bronx Walk Of Fame honoree and inductee, Leyva is a proud Latina of Dominican and Cuban descent. In addition to being the first Hispanic ambassador for the Gabrielle's Angel Foundation for Cancer Research, Leyva was included in the Top 10 TV performances by the New York Times in 2016. She's also a recipient of the 2016 Visionary Award in New York City from the Stonewall Community Foundation, the recipient of the 2016 Courage Award from the Anti-Violence Project and was included in People En Espanol magazine's 2016 Las 25 Mujeres Mas Poderosas Issue (25 Most Powerful Women). Leyva is a strong advocate for LGBTQ rights and works closely with LGBT Human Rights Organizations, GLAAD and Anti-Bullying Campaigns. Other notable achievements include the recipient of the 2015 Hola "Jose Ferrer Tesis Award," the 2015 Cosmo for Latina's: "Women of the Year Award" and recognized at the 2014 ALMA Awards with a "Special Achievement Award" for breaking barriers in the arts.

Leyva's numerous television credits include recurring roles on hit shows like "Veep," "Law & Order: SVU," "Blue Bloods," "The Good Wife," "Girls," "Elementary," "The Following," "The Sopranos" and "Third Watch." On the big screen, Leyva was in the blockbuster franchise, "Spiderman" as Ms. Warren, she's been seen in "Sex & The City 2," the Oscar-nominated film, "Maria Full of Grace," and the animated films "Ice Age: Continental Drift," "EPIC" and "Ice Age: Dawn of Dinosaurs." In addition to her on screen credits, Leyva loves the stage and is best known for her off-Broadway run in the Cherry Lane show, "Basilica," the iconic role of Celia Cruz in the off-Broadway hit "Celia," "Ana in the Tropics," "Dona Flor & Her 2 Husbands" and most recently starred in the acclaimed off-Broadway play "Tell Hector I Miss Him" at the Atlantic Theater.

Leyva's memoir, "My Sister: How One Sibling's Transition Changes Us Both" is also due out in early 2020.

###