Live Action Series

Diary of a Female President - Told from the narration of her diary, the series follows a Cuban-American 12-year-old girl as she navigates the ups and downs of middle school and her journey to become the future president of the United States. Gina Rodriguez ("Jane the Virgin") and Emily Gipson ("I Can and I Will") will executive produce along with Ilana Peña ("Crazy Ex-Girlfriend"). Timing: January 2020

The Falcon and The Winter Soldier - "The Falcon and The Winter Soldier" pairs up two of the Marvel Cinematic Universe's most popular heroes—Sam Wilson aka The Falcon and Bucky Barnes aka The Winter Soldier—in a series of action-filled adventures taking place after "Avengers: Endgame." Anthony Mackie will return as the Falcon and Sebastian Stan will reprise his role as the Winter Soldier in the new Marvel Studios series.

Timing: Year One

Hawkeye – Jeremy Renner will star as Hawkeye in the new Marvel Studios series, which introduces another well-known character from the Marvel comics, Kate Bishop. Timing: Year Two

High School Musical: The Musical: The Series - The 10-episode scripted series, set at the real-life East High, where the original movie was filmed, follows a group of students as they countdown to opening night of their school's first-ever production of "High School Musical." With meta references and some docu-style elements, it's a modern take on the "classic" from 15 years ago. Show-mances blossom; friendships are tested, while new ones are made; rivalries flare; songs are sung; and lives are changed forever as these young people discover the transformative power that only high school theater can provide. Timing: Available at launch

Lizzie McGuire –Hilary Duff will reprise her role as Lizzie McGuire in the upcoming Disney+ original series.

Loki - Tom Hiddleston will reprise his role as everyone’s favorite villain, the mercurial god of mischief Loki in the new Marvel Studios series.

Timing: Year Two

Love, Simon - Set in the world of the acclaimed 2018 film, “Love, Simon” follows Victor, a new student at Creekwood High School on his own journey of self-discovery, facing challenges at home, adjusting to a new city, and struggling with his sexual orientation. When it all seems too much, he reaches out to Simon to help him navigate the ups and downs of high school. Timing: Year One

The Mandalorian - After the stories of Jango and Boba Fett, another warrior emerges in the Star Wars universe. “The Mandalorian” is set after the fall of the Empire and before the emergence of the First Order. We follow the travails of a lone gunfighter in the outer reaches of the galaxy far from the authority of the New Republic. Pedro Pascal, Gina Carano, Carl Weathers and Giancarlo Esposito star. Jon Favreau is the showrunner on this original series from Lucasfilm and also an executive producer along with Dave Filoni, Kathleen Kennedy and Colin Wilson. Directors Dave Filoni, Rick Famuyiwa, Deborah Chow, Bryce Dallas Howard and Taika Waititi will helm different episodes from writers Jon Favreau, Dave Filoni, Rick Famuyiwa and Chris Yost. Timing: Available at launch

Untitled Cassian Andor Series - Diego Luna will reprise his role of rebel spy Cassian Andor in this series set during the formative years of the Rebellion prior to the events of “Rogue One: A Star Wars Story.” The rousing spy thriller will explore tales filled with espionage and daring missions to restore hope to a galaxy in the grip of a ruthless Empire. Alan Tudyk will also reprise his role as K-2SO with Stephen Schiff (“The Americans”) as showrunner and executive producer. Timing: Year Two

Documentaries, Unscripted Series & Live Specials

Be Our Chef - What if your family had the chance to create the next great Disney Parks dish? Hosted by Angela Kinsey, Be Our Chef invites families from diverse backgrounds to join a Disney-inspired cooking competition at Walt Disney World that is positive and playful in tone. In each episode, two families will participate in a themed challenge based on their family traditions and the magic of Disney. The finalists will apply what they have learned to create a dish that represents their family through a Disney lens.

Timing: Year One

Dolphin Reef - In "Dolphin Reef," DisneyNature dives under the sea to frolic with some of the planet's most engaging animals: dolphins. Echo is a young bottlenose dolphin who can't quite decide if it's time to grow up and take on new responsibilities—or give in to his silly side and just have fun. Dolphin society is tricky, and the coral reef that Echo and his family call home depends on all of its inhabitants to keep it healthy. But with humpback whales, orcas, sea turtles and cuttlefish seemingly begging for his attention, Echo has a tough time resisting all that the ocean has to offer. Narrated by Natalie Portman and created by the team behind "Chimpanzee," "Monkey Kingdom" and "Bears," "Dolphin Reef" will release exclusively on Disney+.

Timing: Year One

Earthkeepers (working title) - From the award-winning creators of "Chef's Table" and the producers of "One Lucky Elephant," "Earthkeepers" is a cinematic documentary series that enters the adventurous lives of the people changing the way we see the animal kingdom. The episodes focus on conservationists and the animals they've devoted their careers to studying, diving deep into the personal trials and professional breakthroughs of protecting the planet's most endangered species. Executive Produced by Jason Stermann, Brian McGinn and David Gelb for Supper Club and Cristina Colissimo and Jordana Glick-Franzheim for Wellworth Pictures. Timing: Year Two

Encore! - Executive producer Kristen Bell brings together former castmates of a high school musical, tasking them with re-creating their original performance in a high school reunion like no other. Emotions run high as the former students face faded friendships, former flames, self-doubt, and killer choreography. Through it all, these unlikely groups of friends—with the help of Broadway's best—just might pull off a standing-ovation-worthy performance of beloved musicals like "The Sound of Music," "Beauty and the Beast," "Annie" and more. Timing: Available at launch

Ink & Paint - The documentary series, based on the book of the same name, tells the story of Animation at Disney, and how an unsung workforce of trailblazing women helped create some of the greatest animated films of all time. Timing: Year Two

Into the Unknown: Making Frozen 2 - As never before in its near-century long history, Walt Disney Animation Studios is opening its doors, allowing cameras to capture in intimate detail how the voice cast, directors, and team of artists come together to create "Frozen 2." This multi-episode documentary series shows the hard work, imagination, heart, fun and intensity that go into making one of the most highly-anticipated Disney Animation features of all time. Timing: Year One

Magic of Animal Kingdom - In the heart of Central Florida, a team of more than 1,000 highly respected animal-care experts, veterinarians and biologists perform groundbreaking work at Disney's Animal Kingdom theme park and Epcot's SeaBase aquarium. Now for the first time, National Geographic will offer viewers an all-access pass into the 24/7 world of the incredible animal caretakers running one of the most advanced veterinary facilities in the world. Timing: Year One

Marvel's 616 - An anthological documentary series from Marvel New Media in partnership with Supper Club that explores the intersection between Marvel's rich legacy of stories, characters and creators and the world outside your window. Each documentary will dive into the rich historical, cultural and societal context that has become inseparable from stories of the Marvel Universe. Timing: Year One

Marvel's Hero Project - The series, produced by Marvel New Media in partnership with MaggieVision Productions, reveals the remarkable, positive change several young heroes are making in their own communities. These young heroes have dedicated their lives to selfless acts of bravery and kindness, and now, Marvel celebrates them as the true Super Heroes they are. Timing: Available at launch

Muppets Now - The Muppets will bring a new kind of mayhem and laughter to Disney+ with their first-ever unscripted short-form series, "Muppets Now." Overflowing with spontaneous lunacy, surprising guest stars and more frogs, pigs, bears (and whatever) than legally allowed, the Muppets cut loose with the kind of startling silliness and heartfelt fun that first made them famous. Timing: Year One

Prop Culture – Prop Culture is an anthology series that takes a unique look at beloved films through the props & costumes (now modern 'artifacts') that made them unique - from the craftspeople who created them, the actors who interacted with them, and the collectors / archives who own and cherish them. The show will be hosted by film historian/collector Dan Lanigan. Among the films featured in the first eight episodes are "Pirates of the Caribbean: The Curse of the Black Pearl," "Mary Poppins," "The Muppet Movie," "Tron" and "Who Framed Roger Rabbit?" Prop Culture is produced by ABC Studios, Alternative and executive produced by Jason Henry and Dan Lanigan. Timing: Year One

(Re)Connect - In each episode of (Re)Connect, a family will disconnect from their busy lives, devices and outside influences in order to address a relatable issue that's driving a wedge between them. With the help of a specialized expert, each family will go on a unique journey to confront the family's dilemma head on. Can they finally come together as a family to overcome their obstacles and reconnect? Timing: Year One

Rogue Trip - Renowned journalist Bob Woodruff travels the world with his 27-year old son, Mack, and visits all of the places your average tourist is least likely to venture – the roguish, often misunderstood and frequently overlooked corners of the world whose hidden corners surprise, amaze and inspire. This is the family vacation most of us are least likely to take. Timing: Year One

Shop Class - A new competition series featuring teams of inventive students, who are tasked with designing, building, and testing new contraptions.
