

ONE-LINER

Disney and Pixar's "Coco" performed live at the Hollywood Bowl.

OFFICIAL SYNOPSIS:

"A Celebration of the Music from Coco," is the reimagined live-to-film concert experience recorded at the legendary Hollywood Bowl. Bringing to life performances from the spectacular Disney and Pixar film "Coco," this magical celebration of the Day of the Dead includes performances and appearances by: Benjamin Bratt, Jaime Camil, Felipe Fernández del Paso, Alex Gonzalez, Sarah Hicks, Natalia Jiménez, Eva Longoria, Rudy Mancuso, Mariachi Divas, Luis Gerardo Méndez, Miguel, Carlos Rivera, Alanna Ubach; and featuring Lee Unkrich, the film's director.

"A Celebration of the Music from Coco" features a full 60-piece orchestra. Watch performances of the Academy Award®-winning Original Song "Remember Me," plus "Un Poco Loco," "The World Es Mi Familia," "Proud Corazón," as well as some fan favorites from the Latin-American soundtrack, including "La Bikina," "Bésame Mucho," "Recuérdame" and many more.

Disney and Pixar's "Coco" follows a 12-year-old boy named Miguel who dreams of becoming an accomplished musician like his idol, Ernesto de la Cruz despite his family's generations-old ban on music. Desperate to prove his talent, Miguel finds himself in the stunning and colorful Land of the Dead following a mysterious chain of events. Along the way, he meets charming trickster Héctor, and together, they set off on an extraordinary journey to unlock the real story behind Miguel's family history.

"A Celebration of the Music from Coco" for Disney+ is directed by Ron de Moraes and produced by Eventvision, with Gary M. Lanvy, Rob Paine and R.A. Clark serving as executive producers. The live concert event was directed by Fernández del Paso and produced by Disney Concerts and Live Nation/Andrew Hewitt & Bill Silva Presents.
