

FEBRUARY Newsletter

Disney+ is the dedicated streaming home for TV series and movies from Disney, Pixar, Marvel, Star Wars, National Geographic and Star, including exclusive Disney+ Originals.

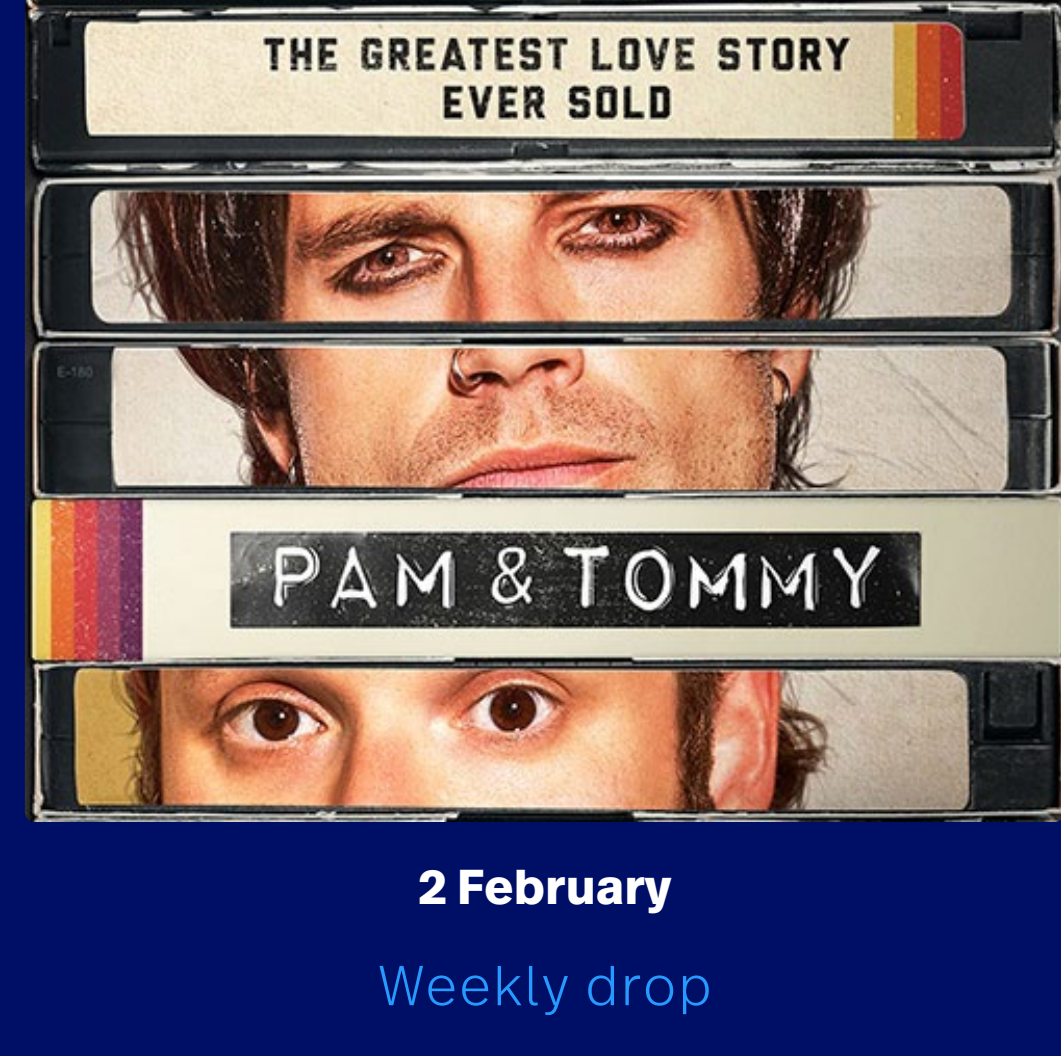

February is another mega month for Disney+, as the highly anticipated original series Pam & Tommy lands in the first week.

This month also sees the return of The Walking Dead, as well as The Proud Family: Louder and Prouder which continues the story of the beloved Disney Channel Proud family from the early 2000s. Plus, there's the incredible National Geographic documentary film Torn, a profoundly intimate and moving look at one unique family's exploration of grief, love and the past.

Please note, movie & TV series availability can vary by country and is subject to change.

PAM & TOMMY [18+]

ORIGINAL SERIES

2 February

Weekly drop

Set in the Wild West early days of the Internet, Pam & Tommy is based on the incredible true story of the Pamela Anderson (Lily James) and Tommy Lee (Sebastian Stan) sex tape. Stolen from the couple's home by a disgruntled contractor (Seth Rogen), the video went from underground bootleg-VHS curiosity to full-blown cultural obsession when it hit the Web in 1997. A love story, crime caper and cautionary tale rolled into one, the eight-part original limited series explores the intersection of privacy, technology and celebrity, tracing the origins of our current Reality TV Era to a stolen tape seen by millions but meant to have an audience of just two.

TORN [12+]

DOCUMENTARY FILM

4 February

In 1999, climber Alex Lowe was lost in a deadly avalanche on Mount Shishapangma. Surviving the avalanche was Alex's best friend and climbing partner, Conrad Anker, who went on to marry Alex's widow and help raise his sons. From filmmaker, photographer and National Geographic Explorer Max Lowe, Torn turns the lens on his own family, as the body of his father is uncovered seventeen years after his death.
