THE MISTRESS' COOKIES & CREAM CHEESECAKE

(No Bake)

Prep Time	Chill Time	Serves	Tin Size
30mins	1 hour	8-10	9" x 2.5"

INGREDIENTS

- 500g softened cream cheese
- 1 tsp vanilla essence or extract
- 250g white chocolate
- 300ml whipping cream
- 600g dark chocolate cookies
- 100g butter
- Food colouring, purple and green

MAKING THE BASE

1. Wash your hands!
2. Set aside 10 whole cookies.
3. Finely crush remaining cookies and set aside 1/2 cup of dry crushed cookies for later.
4. Melt butter and pour over crushed cookies, mixing until it resembles wet sand and clumps together when squeezed.
5. Press into a non-stick removable base fluted tart tin (or similar). Ensure cookie mixture thickness is even and reaches the sides and tops of your tart tin. Compact firmly.
6. Roughly break the 10 whole cookies, press them gently into the base and refrigerate.

MAKING THE MIX

1. Wash your hands!
2. Pour 1/2 of the cream (150ml) over the white chocolate and microwave 1 minute.

3. Stir until smooth, microwaving an additional 30 seconds if necessary.
4. Combine vanilla and cream cheese. Add white chocolate mixture and beat using an electric mixer until smooth.
5. Divide mixture into 2 bowls. Colour one bowl of mixture green and one bowl purple. (TIP – gel based colours are the most vibrant)
6. Semi whip remaining cream and divide evenly between the green and purple mixtures, folding through gently. (Note – be careful not to overwhip your cream) Continue on next page.

BRINGING IT TOGETHER

1. Wash your hands!
2. Dollop scoops of purple and green mixture haphazardly inside the chilled base and smooth the top using a spatula. Set a little of each colour aside for finishing touches.

3. Once smooth, use a skewer or chopstick to marble the mixture using a figure 8 pattern.

4. Add a little extra coloured mixture anywhere you feel you need it and marble the surface gently. Freeze approx 1 hour.
5. While you're waiting, print the Maleficent cake template (page 4) on non toxic cardstock and cut around the silhouette.
6. When the cheesecake is firm to touch, place the template gently on top and press down the edges and corners to ensure a snug fit.

7. Use the remaining crushed dry cookies to sprinkle over the cheesecake, spreading them away from the template so they stick only to the exposed cheesecake.

8. Use a pastry brush to remove excess crumbs from the template, prise the corners up with a skewer or knife and once all corners are free, remove your template.
9. Be amazed!

Keeps in the fridge for 1 week.
Best served chilled.

Serve with raspberry coulis or strawberry topping for a deliciously evil dessert.

AURORA-INSPIRED BEAUTY LOOK

by Karla Roccuzzo

1. Using a dewy primer, prep your skin to achieve a natural glow.
2. Mixing tinted moisturiser and a pea size of foundation, start to blend your base to achieve a soft coverage with a natural finish.
3. Using small amounts of bronzer, shade your cheek bones to bring a little dimension to the cheek and finish off by applying a generous amount of a soft pink blush to achieve a 'flushed' look.
4. Add the same blush to the sockets of your eyes to bring a little detail to your eyes without looking like you're wearing too much. Pair with your favourite soft, wispy lashes.
5. Apply a soft pink lipstick all over to stain the lip, this will bring colour without looking over done.
6. Set your face with your favourite setting mist!

SAM & SNEZ'S FIVE WICKED WORKOUT TIPS

1. Get your head in the right place and your body will follow.

Make sure you're in the right mindset because where your head goes, your body follows.

2. Move in the morning.

When you get your workout done first thing, there is far less chance that other stuff will get in the way.

3. 28 minutes is all it takes.

28 minutes is a short enough amount of time to work at a high intensity and long enough to get results. It's the magic number.

4. Make sure you work your upper body, lower body and core and make sure you do some form of cardio.

Cardio works your heart which is so important but you need to train your whole body to look after your muscles, joints and bones.

5. Progress NOT Perfection.

There's no such thing as perfection and if you strive for it you will be dissatisfied. Your journey will be so much more enjoyable if you celebrate all your little wins along the way.

Head to below channels on Monday May 18, 9am to check out the live workout.
