

BE OUR chef

"Be Our Chef," a new Disney inspired cooking competition series, invites five diverse food loving families to create themed dishes, all inspired by the magic of Disney. The families will compete for a once in a life time opportunity to present their very own Disney signature dish to be served at Disney Parks. In each episode, hosted by "The Office" star Angela Kinsey, two of the five families go head-to-head in a themed cook-off challenge, using family traditions and learned skills, all while representing their family through the Disney lens. The two families with the most wins make it to the spectacular finale, where they compete for the grand prize. The winner's magical food creation will then become a signature dish or treat served at Walt Disney World.

The series is hosted by "The Office," star Angela Kinsey and will feature five diverse families and Disney World Chefs.

"Be Our Chef" is produced by INE Entertainment with Eric Day and Mark Koops serving as producers.

"Be Our Chef" premieres March 27, streaming only on Disney+.
