

Bo Peep makes a big come back in Disney and Pixar's Toy Story 4 and she leads the way in Pixar's all-new animated short film, Lamp Life. Lamp Life answers the question of what happened to Bo since we last we saw her in Toy Story 2. Join Woody and Giggie McDimples as Bo recounts her wild adventures. The film airs exclusively on Disney+.

Produced by Pixar Animation Studios, "Lamp Life" is directed by Valerie LaPointe ("Toy Story 4" and "Inside Out") and produced by Marc Sondheimer ("WALL•E" and "Piper").
