What you'll need

- Pink balloons (around 25)
- String
- Sticky tape
- Lots of pink crepe paper

Instructions

1. Cut the crepe paper to different lengths to create streamers.
2. Attach your paper streamers to the end of the balloons so they look like pink jellyfish.
3. Tie string from one side of the room to the other and hang the balloons from it. Position them close together but at varying heights.
4. Ask your kids to 'swim' between the jellyfish as quickly as they can without touching any of the streamers. If they brush into one and it moves, they're out!
5. You can make this a race (fastest wins) or each player tries to beat their own time.

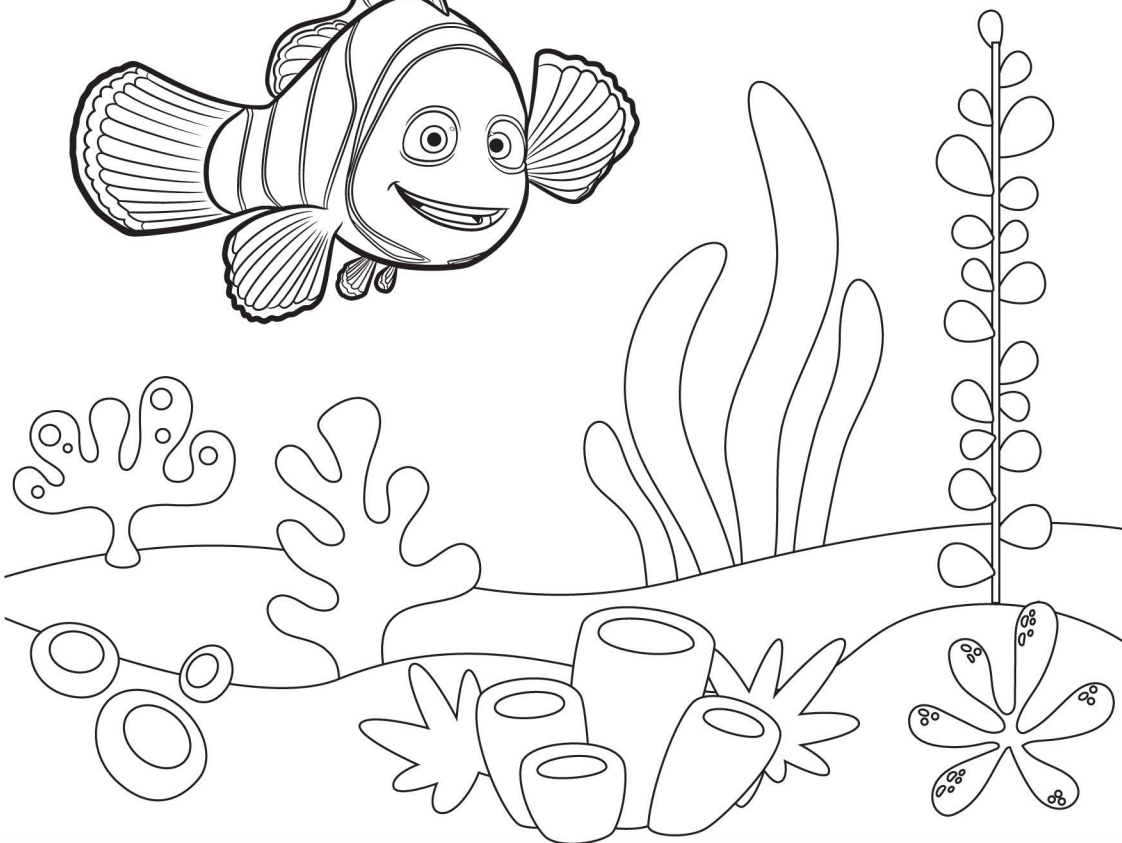

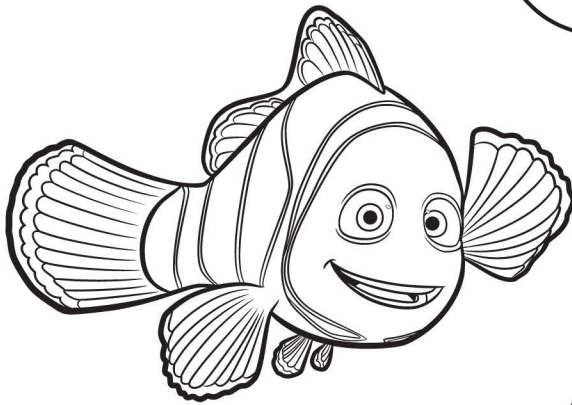

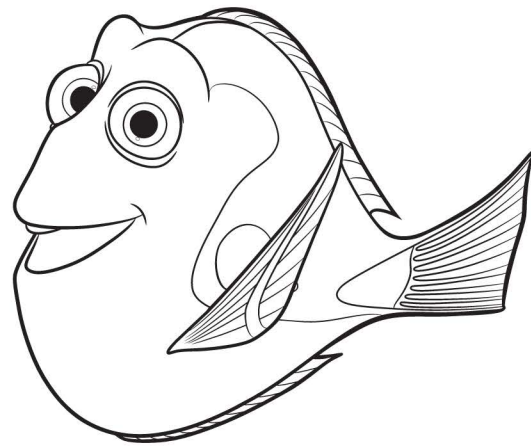

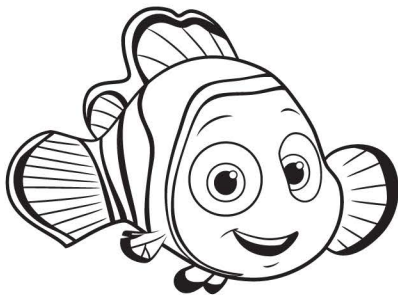

TIP!

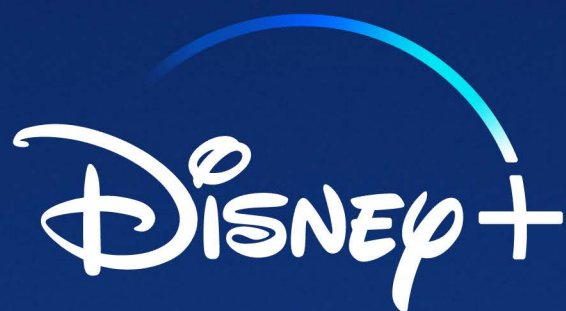

Use helium filled balloons letting the balloon jellyfish float up to rest on the ceiling. Group closely together to form rows.
