

BIOGRAPHY

Trevor Donovan

TV star, "Dancing with the Stars"

Born in Mammoth Lakes, California, Trevor Donovan grew up skiing and snowboarding, and was on the U.S. teen ski team as a teenager. He is most known for his work as, fan-favorite Teddy Montgomery on the global pop-culture phenom "90210," the show's first and only LGBTQ+ character that was a series regular. Donovan also starred in History Channel's epic miniseries "Texas Rising," opposite Bill Paxton, Ray Liotta and Jeffrey Dean Morgan. Donovan's upcoming projects include the movie "Reagan," as well as "Wolfhound," "Aloha with Love," "The Engagement Plot" and "Hot Water."

His TV credits include recurring roles on "Sun Records," "The Client List," "Melissa & Joey," "Awkward," "NCIS" and "Lucifer." As a leading man in romantic comedies, Donovan has starred in the following titles: "Strawberry Summer," "Love on a Limb," "Marry Me at Christmas," "Snowcoming," "Nostalgic Christmas," "Love, Fall & Order," "USS Christmas," "Two For The Win," "Nantucket Noel," "Jingle Bell Princess," "Aloha with Love," "The Engagement Plot," "Love Finds You in Charm," "Runaway Romance," "Prescription for Love" and "Love, Lost & Found."

Donovan is also an author and has written three children's books: "Love Always, Dogbert & Tito" and "Love Always, Dogbert's Journey." The third book is called "Love Always, Chance the Courageous." Donovan's "Love Always" series is inspired by real-life everyday experiences that have been shared with millions of devoted fans around the world via his social media channels. Donovan is a true renaissance man, aside from being proficient at most sports; he can play guitar, sing, earned a bachelor's degree in graphic design, is an active ambassador for Habitat for Humanity and the Robert F. Kennedy Center for Justice & Human Rights, a canine advocate, and started a nationwide anti-bullying program called Team Upstanders. Donovan resides in both Mammoth and Los Angeles, California.