

Disney VAMPIRINA TEENAGE VAMPIRE

BIOGRAPHY

Faith Hedley

"Britney"

Faith Hedley is an Australian young performer known for her angelic voice, versatility and captivating stage presence. She recently relocated from Sydney, Australia to Los Angeles, California for her new series regular role in the Disney Channel Original Series, "Vampirina: Teenage Vampire."

Beginning her journey at just three years old at Brent Street Performing Arts, Australia's premier arts school, Faith has built an impressive resume. She has played 'Young Anna' in Disney's Broadway Production of "Frozen: The Musical" in Sydney, Australia and 'Young Nala' in Disney's International Tour of "The Lion King". She has recently starred in two Disney pilots and landed the role of 'Britney' in the live version of Disney's "Vampirina: Teenage Vampire," which is set to air on Disney Channel in Fall 2025.

Faith also voiced the speaking and singing role of the lead animated character in a commissioned pilot children's show for Netflix. With a multicultural background and versatile talents in singing, dancing, and acting, Faith continues to shine in productions worldwide, captivating audiences with her undeniable X factor and charisma. She is represented by Sherry Kayne at Rebel Creative Group and Ryan Goodell at Yorn Levine.

#