Frankie Rodriguez
"Carlos"

Frankie Rodriguez plays Carlos on High School Musical: The Musical: The Series! With his character, he made history as the first openly gay character in the franchise.

Recent TV/Film credits include "Will & Grace," "Modern Family" and the short film "Call Me Daddy" which earned him a best actor nomination by the Official Latino Film and Arts Festival. Frankie can also be heard on the soundtracks for the Disney Channel Original Movie "Christmas Again" and "Disney Princess Remixed - An Ultimate Princess Celebration."

A true theatre kid at heart, Frankie produced a sold out run of "Dog Sees God," where he also played the role of Beethoven. Other favorite theatre credits include Arpad in "She Loves Me," Jack in "Into The Woods," and Tobias in "Sweeney Todd." He also served as host for the entertainment podcast "Margaritas with Young Hollywood," where he and his co-host discussed pop culture & entertainment industry advice with new guests weekly. Rodriguez obtained his BFA in Musical Theatre from the American Musical and Dramatic Academy.
