Andrew Barth Feldman "Antoine"

In season two of "High School Musical: The Musical: The Series," Andrew Barth Feldman plays "Antoine," a French foreign exchange student at rival high school North High, who cannot help but flirt with Ashlyn.

After winning the 2018 National High School Musical Theatre Award (aka the Jimmy Award) as a high school sophomore, Barth Feldman made his Broadway debut a year later as the title character in the Tony Award-winning musical "Dear Evan Hansen." Barth Feldman, who will attend Harvard University next year, also runs a theatre company that he founded at age twelve, Zneefrock Productions. Zneefrock Productions partners theatre with advocacy, raising funds for several charitable causes.
