Hudson Stone

"Desi"

Hudson Stone stars as Desi in "Camp Rock 3."

A versatile talent on the rise, Stone is quickly establishing himself as one of music's most exciting new artists. His debut single, "Overthinker," earned early acclaim as one of Rolling Stone's "Songs You Need to Know," introducing listeners to his signature blend of high-octane riffs, infectious hooks, and sharp storytelling. He recently signed with Hollywood Records and will be touring arenas this fall with the "Worlds Collide Concert Tour."

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Stone picked up a guitar at five years old and hasn't put it down since. With an Australian father and a half-Korean mother, his perspective has always been shaped by a mix of cultures and influences. On any given day, you're likely to find him studying for a calculus final, watching a Dallas Cowboys game, or surfing in Malibu.

"Camp Rock 3" premieres August 13 on Disney Channel and next day on Disney+.
