Kristen Schaal
"Number Two"

Kristen Schaal has established herself as one of the most versatile and sought-after comedic talents in television and film. Schaal can be seen starring in the hit Disney+ series The Mysterious Benedict Society and season three of the Emmy®-nominated FX series What We Do in the Shadows. Additionally, Schaal stars in FOX's Bob's Burgers and previously starred opposite Will Forte in The Last Man on Earth, also for FOX.

Schaal's many film credits include Bill and Ted Face the Music opposite Keanu Reeves and Alex Winter, as well as Amazon Prime's film My Spy opposite Dave Bautista. She voiced the role of "Trixie" in Toy Story 4.

She's made numerous appearances as the "Senior Women's Correspondent" for The Daily Show with Jon Stewart, tackling topics such as sexism, gender wage equality, political campaigns and, sometimes, "dad bods." Also on Comedy Central, she had an hour stand-up special, Live at the Fillmore, which was the first bomb ever recorded. Her half-hour special and other stand-up appearances are all available on a very modern DVD.

Other cult television credits include Flight of the Conchords, Gravity Falls and 30 Rock. In theater, Schaal appeared in The Coward at Lincoln Center and was awarded The Lucille Lortel Award for her performance.
