"Penny Proud"

Kyla Pratt reprises her role as Penny Proud in Disney+'s "The Proud Family: Louder and Prouder," the long-anticipated revival of the groundbreaking animated series "The Proud Family."

Pratt began her career at the age of eight by appearing in commercials and guest starring on notable series such as "Friends," "Family Matters," "Sister, Sister," "Moesha" and Disney Channel's "Lizzie McGuire."

Her career took off after she booked a starring role in "Dr. Dolittle," opposite Eddie Murphy, as Maya, a quirky daughter who had the skill of being able to speak to animals. She continued to star in the film series and eventually became the lead. Pratt's additional credits include leading roles in "Love & Basketball," "Fat Albert," "Hotel for Dogs," "One on One" and "Let's Stay Together."

More recently, Pratt starred in Freeform's "Recovery Road" and the television movie "No Time Like Christmas." She can currently be seen on FOX's hit comedy series "Call Me Kat" starring in a series regular role as Randi.

Pratt currently resides in Los Angeles with her three children and partner.
