

Kylee Russell
"Eliza"

Kylee Russell returns as Eliza, Zed's no-nonsense best friend who is passionate about zombie equality and a rebel at heart, in "ZOMBIES 3," the third installment in Disney's hugely successful franchise.

Russell can be seen on the big screen later this year in the feature film "#FBF," starring opposite of Ashley Judd. She also starred in the TUBI original movie "Crushed" which premiered in April. She has appeared in Disney Channel's "Girl Meets World," the online short "Virtual High," and the Disney Channel Original Movie "Jump In!" She starred in the feature film "Mississippi Damned," the BAFTA-nominated TV movie "Hank Zipzer's Christmas Catastrophe," and the shorts "The Sub," "Code Red" and Nike's short film "Bring Your Game." Additional acting credits include guest-starring roles on "Modern Family," "Chasing Life," "ER," "Just Jordan," "Still Standing" and "Eve."

In addition to acting, Russell is a singer, songwriter and dancer. She performed all of the original songs on the "Hank Zipzer's Christmas Catastrophe" soundtrack and is a member of the vocal group Dandridge, along with her sisters Halle Russell and Chelsea Tavares. She also co-wrote and performed the song "My Christmas Love," which is featured in TVOne's "Royal Christmas Holiday" movie.

A native Californian, Russell currently resides in Los Angeles.
