

Kyra Tantao

"A-li"

Kyra Tantao plays "A-li," a super-intelligent and telepathic alien with an intense outlook on life, in "ZOMBIES 3," the third installment in Disney's hugely successful franchise.

Tantao is a Latina actor, musician, playwright, and creator in Brooklyn, New York, whose other television credits include NBC's "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit." Next she will be seen in the feature "The Adults" opposite Michael Cera, directed by Dustin Guy Defa.

Theatre credits include the world premiere of "Orchid Receipt Service" by Corinne Donly at MITU580, where she played the role of 'Morgan'. She also originated the role of 'Jane' in Natalie Margolin's "The Day the Butcher Shop Closed," which won best production at the SheNYC Arts Theater Festival 2019. Tantao can also be seen dancing alongside Princess Nokia in her music video, "Sugar Honey Iced Tea (S.H.I.T.)."

Tantao's playwriting is largely targeted towards young artists, including "The Cool Kids Wear Black Lipstick" which premiered at Ghostlight Theatre and "The Tenants," which premiered at Wardlaw + Hartridge School, and was then revived at Ghostlight.

Tantao is the front woman and founder of the anti-establishment, punk band "Monica Bang." Her performance videos can be found on YouTube and tracks can be heard on all major streaming platforms. Keep an eye out for a Monica Bang resurgence later this year.
