Lil Rel Howery

"Bubbie"

Lil Rel Howery voices Bubbie in the Disney+ animated holiday special "A Proud Family Wizmas."

Howery is a Chicago-born actor, comedian, writer, producer and director whose breakout performances in "The Carmichael Show" and the Academy Award®-winning film "Get Out" established him as one of comedy's most versatile talents. He has since starred in fan-favorite films and series, including "Free Guy," "Space Jam: A New Legacy," "Vacation Friends," "The Mill," "Good Burger 2," "Dashing Through the Snow," "Harold and the Purple Crayon" and the acclaimed drama "We Grown Now." He is also the voice of Chief in Universal's "Dog Man" and co-starred with Rainn Wilson in "Code 3." In 2026, he made his directorial debut with the independent film "Haunted Heist," starring alongside Tiffany Haddish.

Beyond acting, Howery has released four acclaimed stand-up specials, created and starred in the Fox sitcom "Rel" and produced his annual Whats Funny Comedy Festival in his hometown of Chicago.

Off-screen, Howery is a dedicated father and an active supporter of community and social justice initiatives.
