

BIOGRAPHY

Lumi Pollack "Rosie"

Lumi Pollack stars as Rosie in "Camp Rock 3."

Lumi Pollack has quickly emerged as one of Hollywood's most promising young talents, known for her versatility and captivating on-screen presence.

Pollack made her professional debut at age 11 in Megan Park's critically acclaimed drama "The Fallout," portraying Amelia, the younger sister to Jenna Ortega's character. She went on to star as Autumn in the international adventure film "Autumn and the Black Jaguar," directed by award-winning French filmmaker Gilles de Maistre. In preparation for the physically and emotionally demanding role, Pollack spent 10 months in the jungles of Mexico bonding with a real jaguar before filming across multiple challenging locations.

Her screen credits also include a guest-starring role on Disney's "Sydney to the Max" and a lead role in the independent feature "One Big Happy Family" which celebrated its world premiere in 2025. Pollack also stars in "Electric Bloom" alongside Carmen Sanchez, Ruby Marino, and Nathaniel Buescher. The show follows a girl band since they met in middle school to present day, learning how their pre-famous lives go on to fuel their future musical chart toppers. On the animation side, she voices Westyn, the friendly Witch of the West, in the new series "Dee & Friends of Oz," performing an original song in every episode.

In addition to acting, Pollack is an accomplished singer, dancer, and musician, playing both piano and guitar. Her dedication to her craft continues to set her apart as a rising star to watch.

"Camp Rock 3" premieres August 13 on Disney Channel and next day on Disney+.