

Disney VAMPIRINA TEENAGE VAMPIRE

BIOGRAPHY

Milo Maharlika

"Demi"

Modern-day Renaissance kid Michelangelo Rizal Maharlika stars as 'Demi,' the 600-year-old overzealous ghost in the upcoming series, "Vampirina: Teenage Vampire."

Milo was born in Honolulu, Hawaii, and made his first on-screen appearance at six months old in the film "Broken Hula," which premiered at the 2014 Hawaii International Film Festival. Milo has been studying the arts for as long as he can remember: acting, singing, dancing, martial arts and fine arts (drawing, painting, poetry, and spoken word).

In Hawaii, Milo worked on iconic shows such as "Hawaii Five-O" and "Magnum P.I.," as well as several films shot on Oahu, including "Triple Frontier," "Press Play," and "Taika Waititi's Next Goal Wins." Milo also starred in "Ikaika" and "The Good Father," which premiered at the 2020 Hawaii International Film Festival and the 2021 Made in Hawaii Film Festival, respectively.

During the pandemic, Milo's family moved to Thailand, where he trained extensively in theatre, scene study, Shakespeare, improv, dance (ballet, hip hop, jazz, K-pop), music (piano, ukulele, drums and harmonica), and martial arts (Muay Thai, MMA, Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, and Eskrima). From 2023-2024, Milo played the role of the young revolutionary 'Gavroche,' touring through 50 cities in the U.S. and Canada in 19 months on the "Les Misérables" Broadway North American Tour. Milo currently lives in Los Angeles and continues to train in fight choreography, wire work, parkour, tricking, tumbling, dance and mime. He also studies and performs improv weekly at the LA Connection Comedy Theatre.

When not working on professional projects, Milo loves spending time with his family, playing with his two younger siblings, watching films, going to the beach, and trying new restaurants. He also enjoys playing music on his ukulele and piano, creating art, singing and dancing. Milo also participates in workshops with Aim4theHeART, a Los Angeles-based non-profit organization that teaches the youth emotional literacy through music, poetry and the arts.

Milo is excited and honored to be joining the Disney family. He loves to create and collaborate. His ultimate goal is to inspire others and affect positive change in the world.

#