Nathaniel "Nate" Buescher
"Lucas"

Nathaniel "Nate" Buescher stars as class crush and band supporter Lucas in "Electric Bloom."

Buescher is a 17-year-old actor based in Chicago, currently in the midst of filming the exciting new Disney TV show, "Electric Bloom." Buescher has been the lead in the anthology series "Circuit Breakers" and has filmed a pilot titled "Hot Pink."

Buescher's extensive experience in TV includes multiple pilots such as "The Hypnotist's Love Story" and "Runner" (ABC), and the Robert Levine Project. He was also a recurring character on "APB" and appeared on "Chicago Med."

In addition to his work on screen, Buescher has a passion for theater, having played Les in "Newsies" and Eric in "Matilda." His versatility extends beyond acting; Buescher is an accomplished hip hop dancer who performed with the Chicago Bulls Kidz for five years and is a company member of the Xtreme Dance Force Dance Company. He is also an avid cross-country and track runner, as well as a lacrosse player.

Committed to giving back to his community, Buescher devotes significant time to supporting individuals facing food insecurity and homelessness throughout Chicago.

"Electric Bloom" is set to premiere on Disney Channel and Disney+ summer 2025.
