

Rachael Harris "Nora"

Rachael Harris stars as Nora in the chilling new series "Goosebumps," inspired by R.L. Stine's worldwide bestselling books, premiering on Disney+ and Hulu.

In the late '90s, Harris joined The Groundlings, a well-known and respected improvisational and sketch comedy troupe. From there, she went on to be a correspondent on "The Daily Show with Jon Stewart" and appeared in some of America's most famous shows, such as "Friends," "Frasier," "Curb Your Enthusiasm," "Modern Family" and "New Girl," among many others. In addition, she was cast as a lead in the sitcom "Surviving Jack," opposite Christopher Meloni, and portrayed fan-favorite Sheila Sazs on "Suits."

Harris has appeared in many theatrical films, including "The Hangover" and the original three "Diary of a Wimpy Kid" movies. She has been a part of many of Christopher Guest's improvised films, including "Best in Show," "A Mighty Wind" and "For Your Consideration."

In 2012, Harris was nominated in the Best Female Lead category at the Independent Spirit Awards for her performance in the movie "Natural Selection," where she portrayed a devout Christian housewife determined to reunite her dying husband with his illegitimate son. Additionally, she won a Breakthrough Performance Award at the 2011 SXSW Film & TV Festival for the film.

She was a series regular on the hit series "Lucifer." In 2020, the series topped the Nielson ratings for several weeks consecutively with every new episode released. In 2022, Harris appeared in the hit series "Ghosts" and "Fantasy Island." On the big screen, Harris was cast in the feature "Unfrosted: The Pop-Tart Story," which will be Jerry Seinfeld's directorial debut, and "Old Dads" directed by Bill Burr.

Harris grew up in Worthington, Ohio. She graduated from Worthington High School and attended Otterbein College, where she graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in theater and music.
