Rebecca Riordan
Executive Producer

Rebecca Riordan holds a degree in fine art from the University of Texas at Austin. She spent a decade as a horticulturist and interior landscaper in Texas and California, then another decade as Rick Riordan's office manager, guiding all aspects of his publishing career. She cofounded Mythomagic Incorporated in 2020, and has since served as executive producer on a number of film and television projects adapting Rick's books for the screen. As any Riordanverse fan knows, Becky has been integral in the development of Percy Jackson from its origin as a bedtime story for the Riordans' oldest son to the blockbuster franchise it is today.
