

BIOGRAPHY

Ruby Marino
"Tulip"

Ruby Marino stars as quirky and optimistic Tulip in "Electric Bloom."

Ruby Marino is a rising star, born and raised in Los Angeles. One of the leads of the upcoming Disney series "Electric Bloom," Marino discovered her passion for acting at a very young age. At just four years old, she knew she wanted to pursue acting after attending a musical theater day camp where she fell in love with singing Disney Princess songs. One of her fondest memories is from her first play at age five, where she played 'Shrek' in "Shrek the Musical." The experience was a magical one for Marino and cemented her love of performing.

Her journey into acting took off when, after years of persistence, her parents agreed to let her audition for TV and film. Her first big break came when she booked the role of 'Tulip' on "Electric Bloom." The role came after a rigorous testing process, which included singing for legendary songwriter Diane Warren. What started as a self-tape submission from an open casting call on Instagram turned into a dream come true when she received the call to play 'Tulip.'

One of the highlights of working in the industry so far has been the friendships she's formed with her fellow cast members. Outside of acting, Marino enjoys drawing, painting and crochet. Her philanthropic spirit is also evident, as she and her family foster puppies for Tobie's Small Dog Rescue and volunteer with Food on Foot, which helps the unhoused population in Los Angeles.

"Electric Bloom" is set to premiere on Disney Channel and Disney+ summer 2025.