

Trevor Tordjman
"Bucky"

Trevor Tordjman reprises his role as "Bucky," Seabrook High's always over-confident student body president, in "ZOMBIES 3," the third installment in Disney's hugely successful franchise. Tordjman also stars as charming and enthusiastic Parker Preston, the part-owner of Kikiwaka Ranch who doesn't always see eye-to-eye with Lou, in Disney Channel's comedy series "BUNK'D."

Tordjman is also known for his role as a series regular on ~~five seasons of~~ "The Next Step," the highest-rated teen show on Canada's Family Channel. It also airs on the BBC and CBC networks. Among his other credits are host of Disney's FamJam, host, choreographer and performer in "The Next Step" Live World Tour, and acting roles in the CBC/Family Channel series "Lost & Found Music Studios" as well as the TV movie "Full Out," opposite Jennifer Beals. In addition to on-screen credits, Tordjman has a number of projects in development and most recently created, produced and hosted the digital talk-show series "What's Up North" alongside Instagram.

Born in Southern Ontario, Canada, Tordjman is the third of four children. He grew up dancing in his mother's dance studio, choreographing and performing routines with his siblings and cousins. At age 11, he decided to parlay his passion for dance and entertainment into a career in on-camera acting.

He currently resides in Los Angeles, California.
