BIOGRAPHY

MICHAEL TROTTER

'Gus Grissom'

Michael Trotter plays the role of original Mercury 7 astronaut 'Gus Grissom' in National Geographic's original scripted series THE RIGHT STUFF on Disney+, based on Tom Wolfe's bestselling nonfiction series, which dramatically explores the early days of the NASA space program.

Raised in central Virginia, Michael graduated from The University of Virginia and went on to study theatre at The American Conservatory Theatre in San Francisco. After moving to Los Angeles, he was cast in the Stephen Frears-directed CBS pilot "Skip Tracer."

Recent credits include recurring roles in WGN's "Underground," Marvel's "Inhumans," as well as a co-starring role in the Netflix film "Jamesy Boy" opposite Mary Louise Parker and James Woods. Michael will next be seen starring opposite Lily Taylor in the independent film "The Evening Hour" in 2020.

Michael has a cat named Bruce Wayne.
