

Disney
WEEKEND FAMILY
DAPHNÉE CÔTÉ-HALLÉ (Emmanuelle)

Actress, screenwriter and visual artist Daphnée Côté-Hallé, 28, became known to the Quebec public through the popular radio series Faits divers, which aired on Radio-Canada from 2017 to 2021. She also played the lead female role in the popular web series Le Killing. Over the years, she has appeared in several Quebec-based projects, such as Entre deux draps (Pillow Talk), Six degrés, Victor Lessard, Nomades, and L'Intermédia-web, and in the one-woman-show Clara veut être une actrice, which won Best French-Language Play at the 25th Fringe St-Ambroise Festival. She is also the author of Les Microcosmes, a series of collages tinged with nostalgia. In 2015, she founded Une (autre) compagnie de théâtre, of which she is the co-creative director. It has since become known for its bold and mordant productions and its playful, critical take on contemporary concerns.